

Ann Dunbar

I am recently retired from a full time position in an Elementary setting. Now, as a sub, I've had the opportunity to see different education settings in our district. I feel like I have a better sense than ever about what we need to work for in our district and in schools across the country. I would therefore like to participate in the NEA gathering this summer.